

Letters of Endorsement

- Australian Ambassador to Denmark - Sharyn Minahan
- Minister for Climate Change - Hon. Penny Wong
- World Wide Views Ambassador, Danish Minister for Energy - Connie Hedegaard

Statements of Support

Ross Milbourne, Vice Chancellor, University of Technology, Sydney

World Wide Views on Global Warming is not only giving citizens a voice in the international climate negotiations.

Sydney is internationally recognised as delivering research which is at the cutting edge of creativity and innovation.

Mark Johnson
CEO, PricewaterhouseCoopers Australia

"PricewaterhouseCoopers is proud to be the platinum sponsor of the Australian World Wide Views on Global Warming."

Gavin Jennings MLC
Victorian Minister for Environment and Climate Change and Minister for Innovation

"Climate change is the big public policy issue for this century and the Victorian Government is taking imr

"To successfully adapt to and reduce the impacts of climate change requires innovation and creativity ar

"The Victorian Government's objective is a truly sustainable response: creating economic opportunity; a

"I am confident that the Victorian Government's support of forums such as the World Wide Views on Glo

Michael Ullmer
Deputy Group CEO, National Australia Bank

"Adapting to climate change will affect every one of us in different ways. NAB has joined the internationa

"This Communique will be tabled at the United Nations Climate Change Conference in Copenhagen in D

"Creating opportunities for everyday Australians to be heard at this conference is important, and it's why

Greg Bourne
CEO, WWF-Australia

"Through WWF's Earth Hour, Australians led the world in a call for action on climate change. Now in the

"WWF supports dialogue on this critical issue and at such an important time through World Wide Views.