

What Now?

Several people who came to Sydney have asked us for materials they can use to talk about climate change in their own community. We prepared a document full of events, reading, websites and suggestions for everything from writing to your MP to cutting emissions at your work place.

Click here to download the post-event information

Participants presentation:

Click here to get a powerpoint file that you can modify and use (8 MB)

Letter template for you to use:

Click here to get a word document that you can modify and use

(See post-event information document above for information on how to use)

Media release template for you to use:

Click here to get a word document, and to enter your name in it

See media page and results page for other material

And more:

Did you know you can become a fan of World Wide Views on Facebook?

Want to see the photos? They are here, on the global site

Want to see the ABC news item? Click here, and share with family and friends